

As mentioned in previous bulletins, we would be forwarding several questions each week to help reflect on how we “walk together” as a Church.

This month, our parishes are organising “listening sessions” to facilitate how individuals have experience living in the Church. This is not only for practicing Catholics, but also for those who are distant from the Church or those who live on the peripheries of our society.

As of 1 February 2022, the Archdiocese of Edmonton has made available an on-line tool for individuals who wish to submit their experiences even prior to the parish listening sessions: Visit <https://caedm.ca/synod>.

In order to focus your thoughts prior to actual participation, this week’s set of questions are as follows (they are also available by clicking here):

The key question is: How is this “journeying together” happening today in your local Church?

What steps does the Holy Spirit invite us to take in order to grow in our journeying together?

Specific themes and questions to think about this week:

9. DISCERNING AND DECIDING

In a Synodal style, decisions are made through discernment, based on a consensus that flows from the common obedience to the Spirit.

- By what procedures and methods do we discern together and make decisions?
- How can they be improved?
- How do we promote participation in decision-making within hierarchically structured communities?
- Do our decision-making methods help us to listen to the whole People of God?
- What is the relationship between consultation and decision-making, and how do we put these into practice?
- What tools and procedures do we use to promote transparency and accountability?
- How can we grow in communal spiritual discernment?

10. FORMING OURSELVES IN SYNODALITY

The spirituality of journeying together is meant to become an educational principle for the formation of the human person and for Christians, families, and communities.

- How does our church community form people to be more capable of “walking together,” listening to one another, participating in mission, and engaging in dialogue?
- What formation is offered to foster discernment and the exercise of authority in a Synodal way?
- What tools help us to read the dynamics of the culture in which we are immersed and their impact on our style of Church?

These questions are merely intended as helps to prepare your own thoughts, to reflect on your experience with the Church, and to think of ways how we may better bring Christ’s saving Gospel to our communities.

If you have found all these questions a little confusing, perhaps it would help to think of the listening session in this way:

- Think of one or two experiences with the Church that have had a lasting impact on you.
- How would you express that experience to others?
- Is there something you could suggest arising from that experience?

Special Collection for Indigenous Peoples March 5 & 6, 12 & 13, 2022

We have all been impacted in some way as our nation undergoes an examination of our past relationships with its Indigenous Peoples. We cannot erase history, but we can look forward to—and help create—a better future.

As part of the journey towards healing and reconciliation, the Archdiocese of Edmonton has made a firm commitment to provide funds in support of programs and initiatives that respond to the various needs that exist among Indigenous Peoples in our local area.

This is part of a national effort announced by the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops. The Bishops of Canada have made a $30-million collective financial commitment to support healing and reconciliation initiatives among Indigenous Peoples. The Archdiocese and its parishes will contribute three million dollars toward the national goal, using funds that we have been able to designate and set aside for this purpose.

In addition, since many people have expressed their desire to make a personal contribution towards this effort, there will be two special parish collections on the weekends of March 5-6 and March 12-13, 2022. Those who wish to do so can donate through the parish in this way, or make a gift online through the Archdiocesan website.
